

View this email in your browser

September 2021 edition of our monthly newsletter

'Let's act to support asylum seekers in Reading'

Our new blog discusses our upcoming visits to an asylum seeker hotel and how services can learn from our past findings.

Meet our new advocacy services manager

Maria Falzetti joins our team to lead our Reading Voice service - providing free, independent and confidential statutory advocacy to local people.

Affected by hospital delays?

Share your story in a survey launched by our national body, Healthwatch England.

Vacancy: Independent advocate

If you're looking for flexible work, which will empower people with extra needs to express their views, then take a look at this opportunity to join our team.

All Reading GP surgeries scored on phone access

The patient satisfaction scores from a national survey follow a Healthwatch Reading report on the topic.

Teenagers urged to step forward for vaccines

The call comes as young people return to school, college and university, amid rising cases in their age groups.

Also this month...

- Patient transport set for change
- Staff shortages affect local hospice
- Human rights body launches care inquiry
- Maximum waits proposed for mental health care

 Forward our newsletter to a friend

New subscribers: Sign-up here

Existing subscribers: update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list.

Copyright © 2021 Healthwatch Reading, all rights reserved.

Our contact email is info@healthwatchreading.co.uk

This email was sent to <<Your Email Address>>

why did I get this? unsubscribe from this list update subscription preferences

Healthwatch Reading · 3rd floor, Reading Central Library · Abbey Square · Reading, Berkshire RG13BQ · United Kingdom

